Concern Must Move From Morrison Field

Palm Beach county has won eviction proceedings against Industrial Engineering corp. and the firm must move from International Airport by Oct. 21.

The suit was brought by Palm Beach county when the firm refused to leave the air base after the field was reactivated by the armed forces.

Judge Hugh Anderson who heard the suit Tuesday ruled against the defendant tenant and said he would sign final judgement in the case Oct. 18 and three days hence the firm must be off the base or be moved by the sheriff.

Cpl. John T. Pickett, Jr., USMC, who recently returned to this country after 14 months of action on the Korean battlefronts, left Monday to report for duty at the Key West Base after spending a month's furlough with his parents in Pahokee.

Residents Defeat Power Franchise

Pahokee residents rejected the proposed 30-year franchise which the Florida Power and Light Company wanted from the city of Pahokee at a referendum election held at the city hall Tuesday. The vote was 310 against, and 284 for the franchise. Among the 601 ballots cast two were left blank and five were mutilated.

The company will continue to furnish electricity to the city under the terms of the present contract which expires in May, 1952.

Sugar Harvest To Start October 29

CLEWISTON — Present plans call for the beginning of harvesting of the 1951-52 sugar cane crop Oct. 29 and 30, according to Harry T. Vaughn, executive vice president and general manager of the United States Sugar Corp.

The cane cutting or field operations will begin on the 29th, starting a continuous flow of cane to the mill. The giant machinery will start to turn on the 30th, weather permitting, Mr. Vaughn added. Fields are, somewhat wet at the present time, but with good weather between now and the 29th, operations will start, he said.

Growing conditions have been excellent this summer and in the absence of hurricanes the cane is standing in normal upright position and is in excellent condition, Mr. Vaughn said. He added, the only thing we have to be concerned about is the possibility of an early freeze which could damage the cane.

The crop is as large or possibly larger than last year, being 30,000 acres which includes that of independent growers, Mr. Vaughn said. These cane fields stretch around the shores of Lake Okechobee from Bryant, near Canal Point on the east side nearly to Moore Haven on the west shore.

Uptegrove Trio To Sing Pahokee Oct. 24

The Uptegrove Trio—Babs and Osie with Chandler McIlwain—will give one of their many popular concerts in the high school auditorium on Oct. 24 under sponsorship of the Church of God in Pahokee. Profits received from the concert by the church workers will go to the church building fund.

The Trio has given many concerts during recent months and wide commendation has been the order of the day following each concert. So, if you enjoy good singing, make arrangements to attend the concert on Oct. 24.

M. M. Martin, Jr., will be at the piano during the evenings entertainment.

Jake Cone On Mend In Pahokee Hospital

Salt Water Brand Mosquito Breeds Canal Point Area

During the recent mosquito plague in the Glades section of Palm Beach county salt water mosquitoes were found in breeding grounds in Canal Point, according to a report by E. L. Seabrook, entomologist with the Palm Beach County Mosquito Control District.

While workmen were spraying for the pests in the Canal Point area one of the workmen took a quart of infested water from a lot located between the homes of Harold Rosenberg and Earl Maxson on the Canal Point townsite. In this water were thousands of the pests in larvae form.

After the larvae had been identified by the county mosquito entomologist, Mr. Seabrook, he sought further identification and this came from the Identification Department of the Florida State Board of Health. If you care to pronounce the particular brand—"It is 'Aedes Taeniorhynchus'."

Mr. Seabrook told County Commission Chairman Paul Rardin that this is the first time there has been any record of inland breeding of this type since Dr. King, of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, found the larvae several years ago in Orlando. It was pointed out that breeding of this salt water mosquito occurs periodically inland on occasions and is responsible for the large infestations which sometimes occur.

The county entomologist told the commission chairman that a program would be put into effect in an effort to eradicate as far as possible the salt water pest in this area.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Rogers

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Gertrude Rogers, 76, of Pahokee were held at the Engleheart Funeral Home chapel in Fort Myers Thursday afternoon, Oct. 18, with Father M. J. Fogarty officiating. Rosary services for Mrs. Rogers were held at the chapel of Berry's Funeral Home in Pahokee Wednesday at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Rogers, a resident of Pahokee for 20 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Margery Hillier, in Pahokee Tuesday following a long illness.

Other survivors include three sons, W. H. (Bill) Rogers, Harry Seibenmorgan, Johnny Seibenmorgan, all of Pahokee; two sisters, Mrs. A. I. Sheman, Miami, and Mrs. J. L. Dupont, Marineland; two brothers, W. J. Bartley and H. A. Bartley of Fort Myers, and several grandchildren.

Mrs. B. W. Wood, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Charles A. Baker and children of West Palm Beach, spent the weekend visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wood, in Miami.

Slim Takes Over Orange State Station

Gus (Slim) Fleming has taken over operation of the Orange State Oil Company filling station in Canal Point, having relinquished operation of the Shell station this week. Slim operated the Orange State station when it was first opened and enjoyed a good patronage.

Friends and patrons of Mr. Fleming are invited to visit him in his new location. He plans in the future to install equipment to serve sandwiches and coffee. Just when this will be done, he did not say.

Emergency Pump Is Put In Operation By Richlands, Inc.

Quick work on the part of officials of Richlands, Inc., averted a repetition of disastrous flood conditions in 300-acre Pelican Bay farming area following the destruction of the Richlands pump-house and two diesel engines by fire Thursday afternoon of last week.

The two pumps had been operating night and day since the Oct. 1 flood drawing off surplus water at the rate of approximately 80,000 gallons a minute and had the bay bottom land fairly well drained when the fire occurred. With the pumps out of operation the water level in the bay bottom started rising immediately, fed by seepage from the high waters of the lake.

Through the efforts of W. G. Hull, president of Richlands, Inc. and Jess Elliott, secretary, an International Harvester diesel unit was rushed to the scene, arriving Sunday morning and was hooked up and pumping water Sunday evening about the time the water level had risen to the top of the ground and was threatening replanted crops and cattle pastures. The one pump was able to lower the water immediately, eliminating the flood threat. Another diesel unit was scheduled to be hooked up to the second pump the middle of this week and plans are underway for the rebuilding of the pump-house.

The fire occurred while Drew Jones, operator of the pumps, was absent from the building for a few minutes and was believed to have started when a fuel line sprung a leak and sprayed the re-hot manifold of a diesel unit with fuel oil.

Roy Pope Assistant Manager McCrory's

Roy Pope, who left Canal Point and a job at Coburn's Hardware several weeks ago to accept a position with McCrory's Ten Cent Store in West Palm Beach, is getting along exceptionally well in his new endeavor. Roy has been made assistant manager of the West Palm Beach store and told this newspaper recently that he was greatly pleased with the treatment he has received since joining the McCrory concern.

Blue Devils Meet Little St. Ann Team Lair Field Tonight

For the first time this season the Pahokee Blue Devils will start a game as slight favorites when they tangle with the St. Ann Crusaders of West Palm Beach on Lair Field here tonight, starting at 8:15.

St. Ann's will come to Pahokee with a record of 1-2, having won from St. Patrick's in their last contest and lot to Okechobee and SS Peter and Paul in two previous engagements. With Bob Westlund generating plenty of power in the backfield and Guard Fred McConville and Center Bud Waite anchoring the line, Coach Tom Moore will start a team that is capable of giving the Blue Devils trouble throughout the contest. The visitors will have a slight weight advantage but both teams will be evenly matched on reserved strength which isn't anything to brag about.

Coach Dub Kendrick in practice sessions this week has been trying to take some of the cockiness out of his squad, following their stunning upset over Seacrest last Friday, and he has warned his men that nothing will bring defeat quicker than overconfidence.

He says the Blue Devils are in good physical condition with the exception of Fullback Bill Hatton who was bashed in the mouth so hard in the Seacrest game that he lost a tooth and has not been able to scrimmage this week. It is hoped a mouth protector may be obtained for Hatton in time for him to see plenty of action in tonight's game.

Probable starting lineups:

Pahokee	Pos.	St. Ann's
Goodson	LE	Mills
Boland	LT	Harthy
Herring	LG	Murphy
Pope	LG	Waite
McCurdy	RG	McConville
Sims	RT	Nichols

News Notes From State Capital

TALLAHASSEE—Florida radio stations have been asked to wait 30 minutes after horse races in other states have ended before airing the results. Attorney General Richard W. Ervin said immediate announcement of such results can only serve the interests of gambler. Feature races like the Kentucky Derby are not included in the request for delay.

TALLAHASSEE—A county-by-county speaking tour of populous South Florida will be started by Governor Warren October 22, when he gives Tampa the full story of his administration. Announcement of the tour stated he would expose the "undercover motives and activities" of various groups unfriendly to his policies. The speaking program will end in Miami October 27.

TALLAHASSEE—It seems the real reason Secretary of State R. A. Gray cherished the new honorary rank of Kentucky colonel which he received from a Kentucky American Legion post is because he married a Kentucky girl. Ever since World War I he has been known as Captain Bob because of his position in that conflict. Now, he says, he plans to "gently hint" that with the new rank, he is the boss around home.

TALLAHASSEE—The names of those who get welfare help in Florida will not be announced to the public even if Congress should approve. It has been decided here that the veto of Governor Warren of a no-secrecy bill of the last legislature makes it legally impossible for this state's welfare rolls to be thrown open to the public regardless of what Congress does.

TALLAHASSEE—A new law school has been officially opened at Florida A. and M. College here, with a 14,000-book library just installed. The state board of control bought the books from a Washington, O. C. law school, and they are installed in temporary quarters until a new building is completed. In addition to the law school, Florida A. and M. has new schools of pharmacy, engineering and agriculture. Dr. George W. Gore, Jr., the president, said he is enlarging the beginning facilities of each.

TALLAHASSEE—Alto Adams has resigned from the Supreme Court of Florida to return to private life. He announced here that he would spend the next several months in reestablishing his ties in private life and in filling a series of speaking engagements which his work on the bench has not permitted him to accept previously. Judge Adams came to the court by appointment in 1940, and has been reelected twice. Before that he had been a circuit judge in Fort Pierce for the ninth judicial circuit for two years. He was born in Walton county in 1899, got his common school education in DeFuniak Springs, and his law degree at the University of Florida. He was in the navy in World War I. He married Carra Williams, member of the famous West Florida Williams family, in 1925. They have two children, Alto, Jr., who is in the cattle and citrus business with his father in St. Lucie county, and Elaine (Mrs. Nat Harrison). Judge Adams first practiced law in Pensacola, then moved to Fort Pierce and practiced from 1924 to 1938, when he went on the circuit bench. During those years he also engaged extensively in cattle and citrus production. He has headed the state Elks as well as his local and direct lodge, is member of the Episcopal church, the American Legion and the state and national bar associations. He had been a member of the state welfare board for two years.

TALLAHASSEE—Campaign statements for candidates and their managers to use in buying newspaper space have been printed and made available by Secretary of State R. A. Gray. One blank carries a place for the campaign treasurer of the candidate to authorize an expenditure, i. e. for advertising; another is for the newspaper to fill out when the ad has been run and the bill is due, and the third is an order by the campaign treasurer on the bank where the campaign funds are deposited, authorizing payment. Other reports, for travel expense, for recording contributions, and for filling other requirements of the new campaign law also are available. The attorney general has ruled that as soon as a person announces he intends to run for an office, he is a candidate and must qualify under the new law.

TALLAHASSEE—Both Attorney General Richard W. Ervin and Secretary of State R. A. Gray have stated they will run for reelection in the primaries of next spring. General Ervin was the first to formally qualify as a candidate, naming his brother, Robert, as campaign treasurer. Other members of the cabinet are expected to seek re-election, although the remaining question mark follows the name of Comptroller C. M. Gay, who some months ago considered returning to private life in Orlando. However, it is expected that he will run.

Visiting Legion Men Enjoy Local Booth

Approximately 200 Legionnaires and Auxiliary members enroute to the American Legion's National Convention in Miami stopped at the information and refreshments booth set up in front of the Legion Hall on US441 by Fred and Percy Mansfield Post 90, according to a report given at a meeting of Post 90 Monday night, with Commander Paul Collier presiding. Free refreshments of coffee, doughnuts and cold drinks were served to the visitors and each was presented with samples of merchandise donated by local merchants, maps and a souvenir bag of the famed Everglades muck. The Courtesy stand was operated by Post 90 in cooperation with the Pahokee Chamber of Commerce, and will be open to visiting Legionnaires on their way home from the convention.

Plans were made to start a livestock project in cooperation with the Pahokee Chapter, Future Farmers of America. Four yearling steers will be fenced in on the lot at the rear of the Legion Hall and will fatten under a 26-week special feeding program ending May 15, when the steers will either be auctioned off or will be used for barbecue at the annual Pahokee Fair.

It was voted to show free motion pictures every Monday night in the Legion Hall.

TO VISIT NEBRASKA

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Mock, accompanied by Mrs. Lewis Friend, will leave this weekend on a two weeks' trip to Lincoln, Nebr. They will be joined there by Mayor Lewis Friend who left last week on a hunting trip to Colorado and Nebraska.

CHLORDANE + FERTILIZER

Farmers who have the "grow-how" credit much of their success to the right combination of chlordane and fertilizers. For they know that chlordane when mixed with fertilizer can control the soil borne insects that literally work from the bottom up to destroy profitable crop acreage. When chlordane is applied properly, it provides your crop with plenty of protection against these ravaging insect pests.

So be sure your insecticide contains chlordane, the all around insect toxicant.

For further information, see your local dealer or consult your county agent for proper recommendation.

Chlordane controls household insects, too!

Guess They Felt Pretty "Sheepish"

My wife and I went to Central City Saturday for the football game and it was a top-notch. But I began to wonder if it was worth the trouble when we got in a traffic jam coming home.

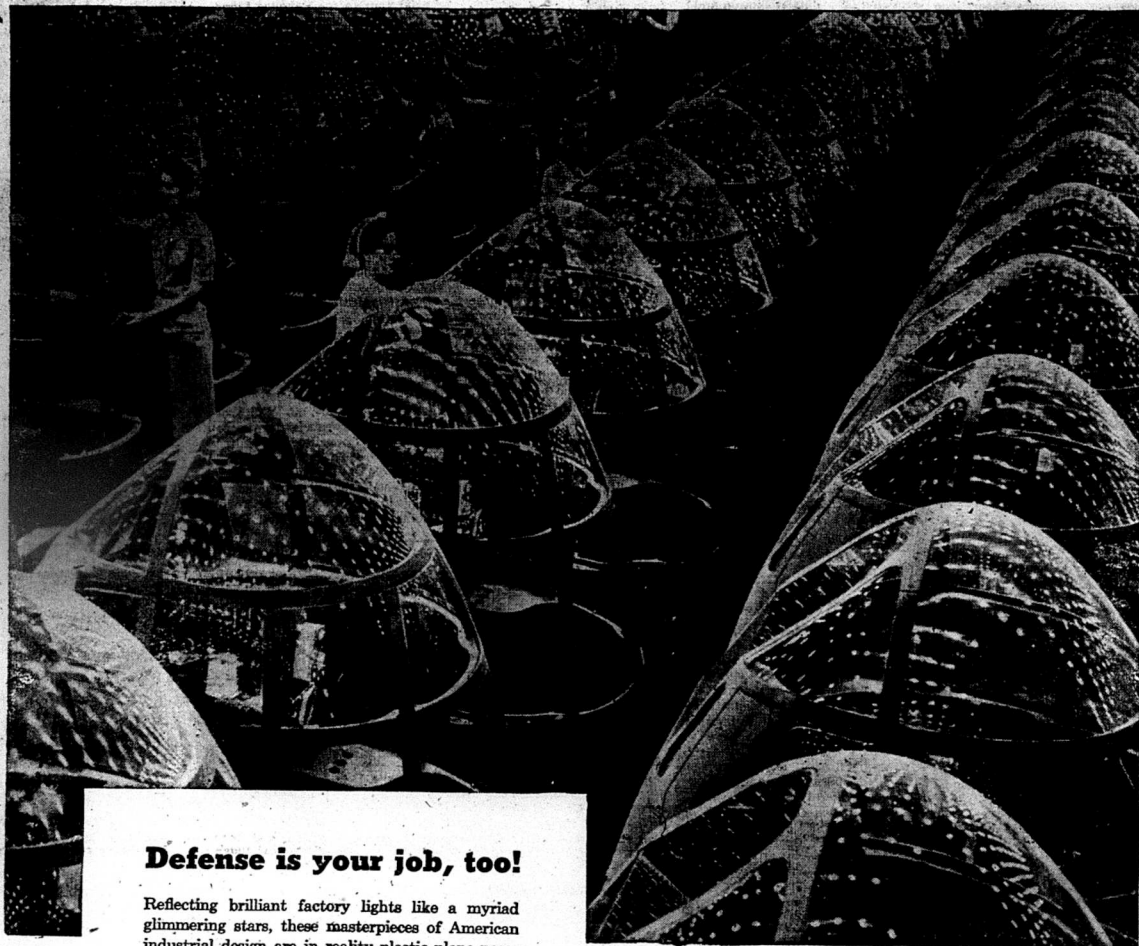

Traffic makes me mighty impatient. When I came to a side road that seemed to point towards the main highway, I turned onto it. This road bumps along for maybe a mile, then fetches up short by the railroad—a dead end.

So, I turned around and darned if there weren't twenty cars behind me! One driver had followed —figuring I knew a short cut—then a whole string of them swung after him, like sheep.

From where I sit, there's no sense in just "following along." Whether it's choosing a road, a movie star, or what beverage to drink at meal time, it's always better to make your own decisions. Personally, I often like a glass of beer with my dinner, but most of all, I like the freedom of making up my own mind about it!

Keene Little Devils Win From Catfish

After suffering a 7 to 6 trouncing from Belle Glade last week Coach Leland Keene's Pahokee Junior High football team party recovered its equilibrium by edging out the Okeechobee Juniors, 19 to 18, on Lair Field Tuesday night. This was a return game for the baby Catfish who were out to avenge the 27 to 6 defeat handed them by Keene's lads on the Okeechobee field earlier in the season.

The baby Blue Devils scored seven points in the first quarter when Johnny Peacock ran the touchdown and Jack Miller made the extra point. The rest of their scoring took place in the fourth quarter when they drove from their own 25 to the Okeechobee 5 where Jimmy Hoyle cut through right guard for the TD, then later in the period after being moved back to their own 30 by a 15-yard penalty Pat Turberville passed to James Pilcher who connected at the 45 and ran all the way to pay dirt.

Halfback Cecil Johns starred for the visitors, making several long runs through the Pahokee line and scoring all of the Okeechobee touchdowns, one each in the first, second and fourth quarters.

Three bids on buildings, 50x100 feet were received by the commission Monday and were referred to County Engineer J. M. Boyd for study with instruction to buy from the best bidder.

The commission, in opening the bids, emphasized the need for an early start on construction of the terminal to be built on the south side of the airport.

Flood Conditions Are Told To Board

Torrential rains and threat of further floods in Palm Beach County was the report heard by members of the County Commission Monday.

Commission Chairman Paul Rardin said that a three-inch rain over the weekend had brought added woes to the residents of the Canal Point area.

One bright note, however, was reported by Rardin who said that he had assurance of the Central and South Florida Flood Control district that the organization would do everything possible to avert highwaters in the townsite of Canal Point.

Pledges of cooperation from the FCD came from board chairman Joe Earman of Vero Beach and W. Turner Wallis, the district's chief engineer. Wallis, the commission chairman reported, had offered to build a sandbag dike within the Pelican Lake Drainage District levees to protect the town of Canal Point. The FCD has declared the Canal Point area as an emergency district and will maintain a close watch on protecting dikes and levees.

Rardin said that on Monday morning, waters were lapping over the top of the Chastain dike, first line of defense and were piling up against the Pelican Lake dike, all that stands between the flood waters and the town.

From the south end of the County, Commissioner Ben Sunday reported that farmers in the Delray Beach area had suffered a 90 to 100 percent loss of crops because of the heavy rains and ensuing floods.

Sunday estimated that between four and five thousand acres of crops had been lost over the weekend.

The commission, on motion of Commissioner John Prince of Lake Worth, urged the Lake Worth Drainage District and the Everglades Drainage District to do everything possible to remove the flood waters as quickly as possible.

Prince said that all controls in the drainage districts were opened to drain the flooded lands as quickly as possible.

Commissioners Lake Lytal and Kenneth Foster both reported high water in their respective districts, particularly in the area west of Military Trail.

The entire commission the early part of the week, left their offices in the courthouse to go out into the flooded country to keep abreast of the rising waters and to see that county crews were doing everything possible to help alleviate the flood conditions.

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

The theme of the services in all Christian Science Churches next Sunday is the opportunity and the obligation of every Christian to follow in a practical manner, Christ Jesus. "DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon.

The Golden Text is from Paul's second epistle to the Corinthians (5: 17): "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

Bible citations include the following from I Samuel (15: 22): "And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams."

Correlative citations from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "The scientific unity which exists between God and man must be wrought out in life-practice, and God's will must be universally done" (p. 202: 3).

Seacrest Downed By The Blue Devils For Our First Win

After three successive defeats the Pahokee Blue Devils tasted the sweet fruits of victory Friday night when they upset the Seacrest: Seahawks of Deiray Beach 27 to 7 and raised their position in the Suncoast Conference race from the cellar to sixth place.

The 1951 Blue Devils have been dubbed a "one-quarter team" and they lived up to their reputation by scoring most of their points in the initial period. Pahokee kicked off at the starting whistle and two plays later Fullback Bill Hatton intercepted a pass by Frank Springer, the Seacrest quarterback, on the Seacrest 40. In three plays Halfback Carney Wilder and Bobby Schroder carried the ball to the 6 where Wilder cut through right tackle for the TD and Schroder plunged the line for the extra point.

A few plays later in the first quarter the Devils took the ball over on their own 46 and in three plays Hatton and Wilder carried it to the Seacrest 30 when a penalty against the Blue Devils moved it back to the 45. Wilder then tossed a strike to Schroder who went all the way from the Seacrest 35. Hatton went through the line for the extra point. Near the end of the first period Guard Charles McCurdy recovered a Seacrest fumble on the Seacrest 32. Wilder carried it down to the 26 and on the next play he faded back for a pass and was on the verge of being smothered by a host of Seacrest tacklers on the 50-yard line when he heaved a long, long one to Bobby Schroder who snatched it on a dead run at the one-yard line with three Seahawks breathing down his neck. Hatton again went through the line for the point. The quarter then ended with the score Pahokee, 21; Seacrest, 0.

In the middle of the second quarter the Seahawks were getting no where on their own 32 when Fullback Lou Manning got off a quick kick that caught the Blue Devils completely by surprise and sailed far over the head of the safety man, Bobby Schroder. In trying to ground the ball Schroder touched it and End Bridger Kirton recovered for Seacrest on the Pahokee 4. On the next play Halfback Delma Swilley went through right guard for a TD and then kicked the extra point.

Pahokee tallied again in the opening of the second half when Fullback Bill Hatton took the Seacrest kickoff on his own 18 and ran the ball back 71 yards to the Seacrest 11. After three tries through the stubborn Seacrest line the Blue Devils were still on the 11, then Wilder tossed a nifty in the end zone to End Robert Goodson who juggled the ball a bit before hugging it tightly for the TD. Hatton's plunge for the point was short.

The Blue Devil line showed encouraging improvement in the Seacrest tilt, with Jack Boland, Charles McCurdy and Bennie Sims doing some nice work. Defensive Quarterback Hal Rosenberg also was a big help in the Blue Devil defense.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

I know many people who read this column will share my regrets at the passing of Leon Errol, one of the world's most delightful comedians. Errol was known as the "Man with the Rubber Legs", due to the manner in which he "limbered up" in his walking, a style of movement that brought peals of laughter from his audience where ever he presented his act. Years ago Leon originated "A Night in a London Musical Hall. In this act he played the part of an inebricated "Gay Blade", continually interfeing with the actors on the stage. Later he went to musical farces and most of them depicted married life and the manner in which an erring husband got out of one mess only to get right into another one. Leon was a "Headliner Act" on Orpheum vaudeville bills for years. . . . And the Arpheum time was the top run in the ladder of success in the old days in show business. Errol started dubbing in the English lord part, combining the two . . . the drunk and the lord . . . and wowing audiences everywhere. It was only natural that Hollywood would see the possibilities of great roasting domestic comedies with Leon starring in them, and talent scouts at last lured him out to Hollywood and to pictures. Mr. Errol's going into pictures brought his clever antics to millions of people who would never have enjoyed his performances. Mr. Errol had lived a full rounded life of activity, bringing sunshine into the hearts of millions of show goers, and at last, the old engine stopped, at seventy years of service. Yes, we'll miss this fine talented comedian . . . but another will come along to take his place . . . for, The Show Must Go On! See you at the movies—Mal.

Auto Dealers Will Meet In Tampa, Oct 21

TAMPA—Your local automobile dealers will probably be among the 700 or more dealers who attend the annual convention of the Florida Automobile Dealers Association to be held in Tampa, Oct. 21, 22, 23.

Never in the history of the industry have so many problems of vital interest not only to the dealers themselves but the motorist as well, been facing it.

In view of this fact, officials of the association have arranged to bring many outstanding authorities to the meeting to discuss these problems.

"Integrity in Government" is the subject to be covered by Cong. A. Sydney Herlong, who is scheduled to speak to the afternoon business session on Tuesday, October 23.

Headquarters for the convention will be the Tampa Terrace Hotel where all sessions as well as an Equipment Exhibit will be held.

Members of Fred and Percy Mansfield Post 90 are putting some finishing touches on their new Legion Hall on East Main St. to make it not only a meeting place but also an attractive recreation center for dances, fish fries, barbecues and other public social events, according to Perry Duke, building committee chairman.

A beautiful terrazo floor has been laid, the building is being plastered inside and stuccoed on the outside and two large attic fans have been installed for air conditioning.

Twelve new tables and 100 new chairs have been purchased and a handsome brick-trimmed portico is being added to the front to improve the general appearance of the building.

United Nations Day Will Be Observed

CLEARWATER — Members of the Florida United World Federalists have been called upon to help formulate programs in observance of United Nations Day, October 24. At a recent meeting the directors of UWF adopted a resolution on United Nations Day which declared: "The strength of the United Nations depends upon the support it receives from the people . . . the need for an international organization with powers sufficient to ensure peace has never been more urgent."

The resolution called upon members to plan programs designed to create interest in the activities of the United Nations and its agencies.

United World Federalist state chairman, George Lewis II of Tallahassee, told members: "This sixth anniversary of the United Nations is the most critical since its founding. The Communist invasion of Korea has made it clear that if we are to have peace and freedom in a world ruled by law instead by force, the members of the United Nations will have to take steps to prevent deliberate and calculated military aggression."

"In observing United Nations Day we will be expressing the fervent determination of people everywhere to make the UN serve the interest of peace."

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lovell of Vero Beach were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lovell, in Pahokee over the weekend.
